

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE A7NEW YORK TIMES
23 July 1983Court Acts on Spy Fund Data

WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP) — A private organization trying to find out what the Government spends on intelligence activities lost a Federal court appeal today. The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia turned down a plea by the Center for National Security Studies for the 1979 budget figure for foreign intelligence, including spending by the Central Intelligence Agency, the State Department and the National Security Agency.